

An Impish wedding for a pair of lovable Crooks!

Roy Blunt, Llanfrechfa, Cwmbran, Gwent

Pete and Ali Crook's wedding took place at Haslebury Mill (near Crewkerne) on Saturday 16th November. Five Imps were planned to help the happy couple celebrate in style before they jetted off to a honeymoon in the Maldives!

We all met up at the Cartgate services and decorated the Imps (all different variants but that was purely accidental) – drawing lots of comments from the public – before heading off in convoy down to Haslebury Mill where we were allowed to park the cars in front of the lake. Haslebury Mill has quite a few classic vehicles

Right: Cars be-ribboned at Cartgate services ready for the convoy to Haslebury Mill
Photos: Roy Blunt

Pete and Ali with Pete's Chamois
Photo: Charlene Cummins
www.cumminsphotography.co.uk dotted around including a WW2 Clark TrucTractor complete with loaded bomb trailer – the bombs are dummies!

The cars were Roy & Dawn Blunt's Super Imp (Suzy), Steve Forde's Husky, Lesley Smith's Deluxe Imp (Hilda), Drew Thomas' Stiletto and of course Pete Crook's Chamois.

Right: American Clark TrucTractor
Below: line-up of five Imps at Haslebury Mill
Photos: Roy Blunt

